1. Introduction

In terms of Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 & rules made thereunder and Regulations 22 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, every listed company is required to establish a Vigil Mechanism (Whistle Blower Policy) for the Directors and employees to report genuine concerns. Such vigil mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of Directors & employees who use the same and also make provisions for direct access to the chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.

2. Objective

- 2.1 A Whistle Blower (Vigil) mechanism provides a channel to any stakeholder including employees to report to the management concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of Conduct or policy and also provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees & Directors by giving them direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.
- 2.2 This neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and / or colleagues in general.

3. Scope

This Policy is an extension of the Code of Conduct. It covers malpractices and events which have taken place / suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of Company rules, manipulations, negligence, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and formally reported by whistle blowers concerning its stakeholders including employees.

4. Definitions

"Alleged wrongful conduct" shall mean violation of law, infringement of Company's rules, misappropriation of monies, actual or suspected fraud, substantial and specific danger to public health and safety or abuse of authority".

- 4.2 "Audit Committee" means a committee constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 4.3 "Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 4.4 "Company" means CreditAccess Grameen Limited.
- 4.5 "Disciplinary action" means any action that can be taken on the completion of /during the investigation proceedings including but not limiting to a warning, imposition of fine, suspension from official duties or any such action as is deemed to be fit considering the gravity of the matter.

4.6. "Employee" means every employee of the Company (whether working in India or abroad) including outsourced, temporary and on contract personnel, probationer, trainee, apprentice, ex-employees, including holding and subsidiary and all the Directors of the Company .

4.7. "Investigator" refers to those persons / auditors of the Company / any other firms authorised, appointed, consulted or approached by the Managing Director or Chairman of the Audit Committee to conduct the actual investigation of the concerns raised by the Whistle Blower

"Nodal Officer" means Company Secretary and / or Compliance officer of the Company to receive protected disclosures from whistle blowers, maintaining records thereof, placing the same before the Audit Committee for its disposal and informing the whistle blower the result thereof.

4.8. "Protected Disclosure" means a concern raised by an employee or a group of employees of the Company, through a written communication and made in good faith which discloses or demonstrates information about an unethical or improper activity with respect to the Company. However, the Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of an interpretation / conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.

4.9. "Subject" means a person or group of persons against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made or evidence gathered during the course of an investigation.

4.10. "Whistle Blower" includes all stakeholders including an employee or group of employees who make a Protected Disclosure under this Policy and also referred in this policy as "complainant".

5. Coverage of Policy

The policy encourages all the Whistle Blowers to voice their genuine concerns which shall include but not limited to the following:

- a. Abuse of authority
- b. Breach of trust
- c. Breach of confidentiality
- d. Any unlawful act, whether criminal (e.g., theft) or a breach of the civil law (e.g., slander or libel)
- e. Manipulation of Company data/records
- f. Breach of any Policy or Manual or Code adopted by the Company
- g. Financial irregularities, including fraud, or suspected fraud, embezzlement.

- h. Deliberate violation of law/regulation
- i. Misappropriation of Company assets/funds; and
- j. Any other unethical or improper conduct.

6. Procedures for Whistle Blowing

- 6.1. Protected Disclosures should be reported either through email at vigil@cagrameen.in or through letter in a legible handwriting in English, Hindi or in regional language addressed to the Managing Director or Head - Human Resource at the Registered Office of the Company with a copy to Nodal Officer by the complainant as soon as possible after the whistle blower becomes aware of the same so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised . An acknowledgement shall be provided to the Complainant by the Nodal Officer. In exceptional or appropriate cases direct access to the chairperson of the audit committee is provided.
- 6.2. The Protected Disclosure should be submitted in a closed and secured envelope and should be super-scribed as "Protected disclosure under the whistle blower policy". If the complaint is not super-scribed and closed as mentioned above, it will not be possible for the Audit Committee to protect the complainant and the protected disclosure will be dealt with as a normal disclosure. In order to protect identity of the complainant, the nodal officer will not issue any acknowledgement to the complainant and the complainants are advised neither to write the name / address of the complainant on the envelope nor to enter into any further correspondence with the nodal officer / audit committee. The audit committee assures that in case any further clarification is required he will get in touch with the complainant.
- 6.3. The Protected Disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter signed by the complainant. The Nodal Officer / Managing Director / Chairman of Audit Committee shall detach the covering letter bearing the identity of the whistle blower and process only the Protected Disclosure.
- 6.5. Protected Disclosure against the Nodal Officer / Functional Heads should be addressed to the Managing Director of the Company and the Protected Disclosure against the Managing Director of the Company should be addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee rekha.warriar@gmail.com.
- 6.6. On receipt of the Protected Disclosure, the Nodal Officer / Managing Director / Chairman of the Audit Committee shall make a record of the Protected Disclosure and also ascertain from the complainant whether he was the person who made the protected disclosure or not before referring the matter to the Audit Committee for further appropriate investigation and needful action.
- 6.7. This policy encourages whistle blowers / complainants to identify themselves while making accusations. However, anonymous complaints will be accepted, and necessary action will be taken after due assessment. While making the discretion, various factors such as credibility of the Protected Disclosure, likelihood of confirming the allegation from reliable resources are considered. Further, it is also clarified that in case the details provided by the complainant, either with respect to himself/herself or the Protected Disclosure is found to be untrue, the Audit Committee is solely authorised to consider the Protected Disclosure in question as null and void.

- 6.8 The Audit Committee if deems fit, may call for further information or particulars from the whistle blower / complainant.

7. Investigation

- 7.1. All Protected Disclosures under this policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated.
- 7.2 The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Audit Committee by itself is not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process.
- 7.3. Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their submissions during the investigation.
- 7.4. Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Audit Committee or any of the Officers appointed by it in this regard to the extent that such cooperation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
- 7.5. Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witness shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the subject(s).
- 7.6. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- 7.7 Technical and other resources may be considered as necessary to support the investigation.

Investigation procedure shall be conducted in an unbiased manner considering the facts and submissions. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behaviour.

- 7.7. Subject(s) have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigations.
- 7.8. The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the protected disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Audit Committee deems fit and as applicable.

8. Decision and Reporting

8.1. Audit Committee along with its recommendations will share its findings to the Managing Director of the Company through the Nodal Officer within 15 days of receipt of report for further action as deemed fit. If a case exists against the subject prima facie, then the Managing Director of the Company shall forward the said report with his recommendation to the concerned disciplinary authority for further appropriate action in this regard or shall close the matter, for which he shall record the reasons. Copy of the above decision shall be addressed to the Audit Committee, the Nodal Officer, the complainant and the Subject.

Provided if the complaint is against the Nodal Officer then the report shall be shared directly with the Managing Director.

8.2. In case the subject is a Nodal Officer / Functional Heads of the Company, the Protected Disclosure shall be addressed to the Managing Director of the Company who, after examining the same, shall forward the matter to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee after providing an opportunity to the Subject to explain his / her position and after completion of investigation shall submit a report along with its recommendation to the Managing Director of the Company. After considering the report and recommendation as aforesaid, Managing Director shall forward the said report along with the recommendations to the concerned disciplinary authority for further appropriate action in this regard or shall close the matter, for which he shall record the reasons. Copy of the above decision shall be addressed to the Audit Committee, the Nodal Officer, the complainant and the Subject.

8.3. In case the Subject is the Managing Director of the Company, the Chairman of the Audit Committee after examining the Protected Disclosure shall forward the same to other members of the Audit Committee if deemed fit. The Audit Committee shall appropriately and expeditiously investigate the Protected Disclosure.

8.4. If the report of investigation is not to the satisfaction of the complainant, the complainant has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigating agency.

8.5. A complainant who makes intentional false allegations with malicious intent shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the disciplinary action policy of the Company.

9. Secrecy / Confidentiality

9.1. The complainant, Nodal Officer, Members of Audit committee, the Subject and any other party involved in the process shall:

- Maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy
- Discuss only to the extent or with those persons as required under this policy for completing the process of investigation.
- Not keep the papers unattended anywhere at any time
- Keep the electronic mails / files password protected.

10. Protection

- 10.1 No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy.
- 10.2 The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential.
- 10.3 Any employee assisting the said investigation or furnishing evidence shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.
- 10.4 Protection against any detrimental action against the Whistle Blower including any harassment, victimization, threat, biased behaviour or any other unfair employment practice.
- 10.5 The protection available is subject to the conditions specified in clause 8.5 above.

11. Reporting

Quarterly Report and status shall be submitted by the Company Secretary to the Audit Committee on complaints received under the policy.

12. Communication

A whistle blower policy cannot be effective unless it is properly communicated to employees. Employees shall be informed through publishing , on website of the Company or any other channel of communication as the Company deems fit, from time to time. There will be clear communication on the processes in place and awareness will be created through training, newsletters, and information sessions about reporting channels and procedures to facilitate disclosures.

13. Retention of Documents

All Protected disclosures documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Nodal Officer for a period of 5 (five) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more.

14. Policy Review & Update

The Managing Director of the Company shall be responsible for the administration, interpretation, application and review of this policy. The Managing Director of the Company also shall be empowered to bring necessary changes to this Policy, if required at any stage with the concurrence of the Audit Committee. In the event of any conflict between the Act or the SEBI Regulations or any other statutory enactments ("Regulations") and the provisions of this policy, the Regulations shall prevail over this policy. Any subsequent amendment / modification in the Regulations, in this regard shall automatically apply to this policy.

15. Disclosure in Annual Report

The details of establishment of Vigil Mechanism/Whistle Blower Policy shall be disclosed by the Company in the Board's Report attached to the Annual Report of the Company.

16. Annual Affirmation

The Company shall annually affirm that it has not denied access by any Directors or employee to the Audit Committee and that it has provided protection to whistle blower from adverse personal action.

The affirmation shall form part of Corporate Governance report, attached to the Annual Report of the Company.

17. Restriction

Policy should not be used in place of the Company grievance procedures or be a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.
